

Graphic Designer

Our client is looking for a Graphic Designer. The selected candidate will be working closely with the product development team. Several locations in Europe are possible for the selected candidate (Austria, Romania, USA).

Role Description

The Graphic Designer selected candidate will be responsible for the design part of the project assigned to. He will be working closely with the development team and she/ he will be in charge of any needed design changes, according to the final consumers' requirements.

Skills & Requirements

- 2+ years UX design experience
- Understand basic CSS, HTML, CSS grids
- Ability to design responsive/ adaptive solutions
- Understand UX design and ability to perform a UX strategy based on real problems
- Proficient with current web standards
- Understand data hierarchy
- User research and persona development
- Ability to create customer journey maps
- Conduct task analysis
- Conduct user validation testing

Why betheconsultant

- You will be working with a professional recruiter who will guide you throughout the entire recruitment process
- You will be offered more than just one opportunity of available positions
- You will be matched to the best job fit
- You will get the needed support in terms of updating & transforming your CV
- You will be in touch with your recruiter after the finalization of the recruitment process for possible clarifications & needed support