

Senior Business Analyst (Agile Scrum/ Software Development)

Our client, one of the market employers in Austria, is looking for a Senior Business Analyst (Agile Scrum/ Software Development). The job will be located in Vienna.

Role Description

The Senior Business Analyst who will be a key team member of an integrated Agile Scrum product team who will help identify, document and implement digital product features, enhancements and defect fixes in a fast-paced software development environment.

Skills & Requirements

- 2+ years of experience as Business Analyst in a software development environment
- Experience working in an Agile Scrum development environment
- Backlog grooming in an Agile Scrum team
- Writing user stories and acceptance criteria & tests
- Comfortable standing in as a product owner proxy for attending meetings and spreading the information in the Scrum team
- Great people skills
- Negotiation & stakeholder management
- Bachelor's degree or equivalent experience

Why betheconsultant

- You will be working with a professional recruiter who will guide you throughout the entire recruitment process
- You will be offered more than just one opportunity of available positions
- You will be matched to the best job fit
- You will get the needed support in terms of updating & transforming your CV
- You will be in touch with your recruiter after the finalization of the recruitment process for possible clarifications & needed support