Scrum Master (Software Development)

Some of our clients, based in Europe and ranked as the top European employers, are currently looking for several candidates in the role of Scrum Master. Locations will be discussed during the first interview.

Role Description
The Scrum Master will be taking care of the team functionality. He/ she will be in charge of the team velocity and its needed adjustments. The Scrum Master will ensure at all times that the definition of done has been followed.

Skills & Requirements
- Guiding the team and organization on Agile Scrum practices and values to have a good cooperation with the customers
- Guiding the team to be self-motivated and organized
- Assessing the Scrum maturity level of the team and organization and coaching the team to achieve a higher level of maturity
- Removing impediments for the Scrum team
- Building a trusting & safe environment where issues can be raised without fear to be blame, consequences
- Building team empowerment
- Assisting with internal and external communication as needed
- Supporting and coaching the assigned Product Owner
- Advanced English (German is a plus)
- Demonstrated ability to coordinate cross-functional & multi-cultural teams towards task completion
- Demonstrated effective leadership and analytical skills
- General project management tools knowledge (Microsoft Project, Jira/ Confluence, etc.)

betheconsultant

Why betheconsultant
- You will be working with a professional recruiter who will guide you throughout the entire recruitment process
- You will be offered more than just one opportunity of available positions
- You will be matched to the best job fit
- You will get the needed support in terms of updating & transforming your CV
- You will be in touch with your recruiter after the finalization of the recruitment process for possible clarifications & needed support