betheconsultant

Junior/ Senior IT Application Manager
(Software Development)

Our clients, employers based in Austria, are looking for a Junior/ Senior IT Application Manager (Software Development). Both jobs will be located in Vienna.

Role Description
The Application Manager will oversee the implementation of the software application for which he will be assigned. He/ she will also be responsible for the software upgrade & network & hardware installations.

Skills & Requirements
- 1-3 years of experience as Application Manager in a software development environment (Junior vs. Senior level)
- Determining which business aspects of the company are in need of upgrades
- Providing recommendations regarding the upgrade to a different system or to the same at a later stage
- Supporting external customers/ internal departments in upgrading to the latest software version
- Dealing & understanding local area networks, desktop applications & computer security
- Installing & maintaining routers, creation & reset of passwords & creation of backups
- Creation, execution & maintenance of company's database
- Analytical & communication skills
- Advanced English (German is a plus)
- Bachelor's degree/ Information technology science master required

betheconsultant

Why betheconsultant
- You will be working with a professional recruiter who will guide you throughout the entire recruitment process
- You will be offered more than just one opportunity of available positions
- You will be matched to the best job fit
- You will get the needed support in terms of updating & transforming your CV
- You will be in touch with your recruiter after the finalization of the recruitment process for possible clarifications & needed support